Notice

The college annually publishes its magazine, Shweta Shardul, on College Day, 14 Asar. We kindly request all members of the Madan Bhandari Foundation's Central Executive Committee, the College Management Committee, former campus chiefs, faculty members, staff, guardians, alumni, students, and other stakeholders to submit their write-ups via email to article@mbmc.edu.np by 5 Baisakh 2081 for inclusion in Shweta Shardul, Vol. XX, adhering to the specified standards.

1. Write-ups will be prioritized based on academic, national, and local cultural themes and vibes (such as research articles, term papers, poems, IQ tests, travelogues, field visits, etc.).
2. Write-ups should not exceed 3000 words, incorporating recent developments, and must follow the 7th edition of the Publication Manual of APA.
3. We provide space for both Nepali and English languages, as well as vernacular tongues.
4. The authors need to attach their photographs along with their designation, department, and faculty.
5. The Editorial Board reserves all rights to reject or make necessary changes to the write-ups without altering the writer's intent.

Please feel free to contact the concerning School, Department, or the Editorial Board in case of any queries.
