Field Work Camp for B.A. Third Year Students

This is to inform you that the college has scheduled the Field Work Camp for B.A. Third Year students from 4th Poush to 7th Poush, 2082 (3 nights and 4 days).

The camp has been designed by Faculty of Humanities and Social Science to fulfill the practical requirements of the University's third-year B.A. syllabus. This year, the camp will be held in the indigenous Tharu community of Amaltari, Chitawan, providing students with valuable exposure to community life and applied field work practices.

We are also pleased to announce that the department has successfully conducted a two-day PRA Workshop on 28th and 29th Mangsir, 2082, as part of the preparation for this annual field work camp.

Important Notes:

- Participation in the Field Work Camp is compulsory. Attendance will be considered in the practical evaluation component of the board examination.
- Students must collect the Field Work Consent Letter and submit it back to the respective department a day before the departure. Failure to submit the consent letter will result in disqualification from the camp.
- Students must collect the Field Work Checklist from the department and adhere to all conditions and safety instructions during the camp.
- Group allocation and the daily schedule will be announced on the first day of the camp.
- For any queries, please contact the respective department.

We look forward to your active participation in making this camp a meaningful and enriching experience.
